

BPI Group Hungary sponsors CineFest International Film Festival

Miskolc, September 25, 2017. – From this year Remy is one of the main sponsors of the 14th Miskolc International Film Festival, Jameson CineFest.

BPI Group Hungary Kft. has signed a cooperation agreement with the CineFest International Film Festival in Miskolc, which presents the latest and best works of Europe’s cinematographic art to an international professional audience and the citizens of Miskolc every year.

“We are proud that we can contribute to discovering new talents and to the development of the festival, which has for 15 years determined the cultural life of the city that is also the home of our European centre. During the event we could also introduce the company’s operation to a wider audience and launch a playful interactive activity as a special element of the popular accompanying events of CineFest.” – said Zsuzsa Szokoly, EHS&S Manager of BPI Group Europe.
